The eye has to

... AS DIANA VREELAND SAID. AND IT'S STILL TRUE. TWELVE GLOBE-TROTTING TASTEMAKERS SHOW US WHERE THEY'VE FOUND INSPIRATION THIS YEAR.

TRAVEL

"I was awed by Peru's crafts. In the village of CHINCHERO, a woman named Nilda Uruena started an NGO to preserve TRADITIONAL WEAVING techniques. The people—and their skills—were extraordinary."

SUSAN FELDMAN
COFOUNDER, ONE KINGS LANE

"I am always fascinated by water and have photographed endless 'WATER STUDIES.' In EGYPT, I captured sunsets on the Nile and the coral reef of the Red Sea in Sharm el-Sheikh."

MALCOLM JAMES KUTNER, INTERIOR DESIGNER

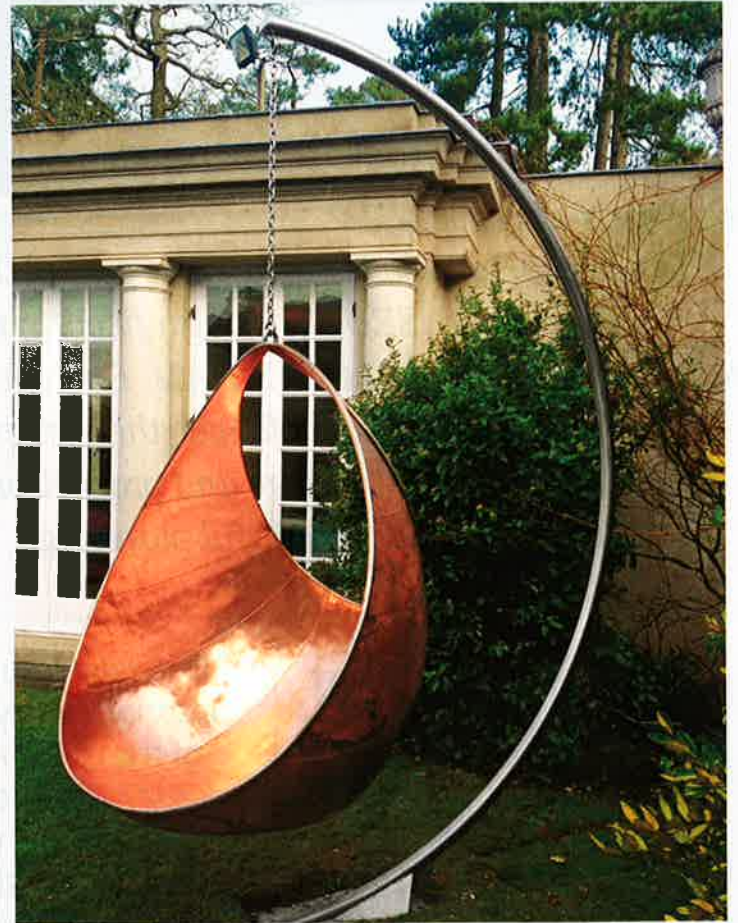

"Among the most memorable moments from a walking tour of Maastricht was the Cathedral of Saint Servatius, the oldest church in the Netherlands and truly one of the city's treasures."

MICHAEL BRUNO, FOUNDER, 1STDIBS

"I was intrigued by the combination of materials—especially the glass baluster—on these stairs at the Hotel Due Torri in Verona, Italy. The hotel itself is a 14th-century building with decoration clearly from a later period, hence the Art Deco railing."

DAVID KLEINBERG
INTERIOR DESIGNER

"I couldn't get over this sculptural COPPER SWING outside the spa on the grounds of CLIVEDEN IN ENGLAND." >>
